FACT SHEET

Purpose: The Mayor's 100 Teens draws attention to the many ways in which teenagers make El Paso County a better place. The program focuses on heralding the achievements of youth who do not routinely receive recognition but who nonetheless make a difference in unique, personal ways. Teens who have overcome adversity, provided service to others, achieved something significant and who lead by example deserve to be honored. In recognizing them, the program intends to inspire more teens to higher levels of service and accomplishment.

Nomination Forms: Teachers, counselors, family (but not parents) and any others who recognize an individual's spirit, drive, and accomplishments may nominate teens currently in grades 9, 10 or 11. It cannot be a teen currently in the 11th grade graduating early. We are requesting that nominators consult with the individual on their interest to pursue this opportunity before submitting the application as the selected teen will have to commit himself/herself to various events and activities. All nomination applications must be typed, handwritten applications will NOT be considered. Preferable method of nomination application submission is via email to nunezdx@elpasotexas.gov. Nomination applications are available at the Mayor's web site (<http://www.elpasotexas.gov/mayor/teens.asp>), all city and county high schools at the counselors' office, libraries, Police Regional Command Centers and a variety of other community locations. Please call (915) 877-3319 or (915) 328-4637 for more information. Nomination application period opens on Monday, March 3, 2008 and closes on Tuesday, April 15, 2008.

Selection Process: Nominations for The Mayor's 100 Teens are thoroughly reviewed by a committee of educators, community leaders, business people and representatives from youth organizations. Notification is made to selected teens in May.

Public Recognition: Each October, The Mayor's 100 Teens are introduced and honored in a celebratory public event. A commemorative book that tells the story of each teen is published. Members of The Mayor's 100 Teens accompany the Mayor to numerous public appearances, participate in community projects and groups and make public presentations throughout the year.
