

Are you a Sugar Land resident and a student between the ages of 14 to 18?

Are you interested in having a voice in policy and decision-making in your local government?

If so, the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council is right for you.

The Council is looking for a diverse group of teens who want to have a positive affect on the community and City of Sugar Land government. You'll be able to provide insight on important City events, programs and a community service project. As a MYAC member, you will receive monthly messages from the Mayor and the latest news about Sugar Land. You will also be invited to activities hosted by the City.

If you are interested in making a difference in Sugar Land, become a member of the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council.

Register now by clicking the MYAC link at www.sugarlandtx.gov. Make your voice heard!

The Mayor's Youth Advisory Council wants to hear YOUR youthful point-of-view!
