Ways to Use Your TML Membership

1

Read the League's official publication, Texas Town & City, to expand your knowledge of contemporary municipal issues.

2

Go to the League's Web site, www.tml.org, for information and help on a variety of municipal issues.

3

Call the TML legal staff to get advice on your questions from annexation to zoning, and everything in between.

4

Volunteer to serve on one of the League's many committees.

5

Learn about a variety of municipal topics by attending a TML workshop.

6

Use one or all of the League's innovative services — cable television franchise service management, human resource assistance, small city problem solving clinics.

7

Attend the TML Annual Conference and Exhibition where the exchange of ideas among other city officials is key and a visit to the "Municipal Marketplace" is a priority.

8

Join one of the League's 21 affiliate organizations to enhance your network in your area of professional expertise.

9

Plan a visit to the League offices when you are in Austin.

10

Assist the League staff by contacting members of the Legislature on key city issues.
