

A TML Small Cities' Problem-Solving Clinic is coming to your area. Don't miss this opportunity to build upon your knowledge and share with other cities of similar size.

City of Navasota

Friday, September 17, 2010

The Navasota Center
101 Stadium Drive
Navasota, Texas 77868

9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

This one-day clinic is designed to provide answers to and discussion of some of the questions most frequently asked by elected and appointed city officials from small cities. The clinic will include a review of services the Texas Municipal League (TML) provides to small cities. TML attorneys will present a session on economic development and key legal requirements for elected and appointed officials. The clinic will also include legal question-and-answer sessions, a legislative issues session, and much more.

Who should attend?

The clinic is open to elected and appointed city officials from small cities.

What does it cost, and how do I register?

The cost of the clinic is only $30 per person, and lunch is included. Complete and submit the enclosed registration form or register online at www.tml.org by September 3, 2010, if possible.
