

PERSPECTIVE

Remember that you will not always win. Some days, the most resourceful individual will taste defeat. But there is, in this case, always tomorrow—after you have done your best to achieve success today.

ABOUT AHMO

The purpose of this organization is to establish cooperative and constructive relationships among our members for the promotion of the general welfare of the Hispanic community.

AHMO has continued to offer its members a unique forum where their interests, concerns, and problems can be shared and discussed.

Two Way Communications

Encourages the exchange of up-to-date information about trends affecting Hispanic city officials through meetings, reports, correspondence, and telephone calls.

Legislative Action

Serves actively with the Texas Municipal League to represent and advance the views of the Hispanic community.

Education

Provides opportunities for continued professional growth, self-development, and interaction with other professional peers through conventions, workshops, and seminars.

BENEFITS

Professional Development

Through its activities and services, AHMO officers and staff encourage and help all members to enhance, expand, and cultivate their professional abilities.

Discounted TML Publications

AHMO membership provides each member with an opportunity to receive, at significantly reduced prices, one subscription to the Texas Municipal League's monthly magazine, Texas Town and City (Regular Price $30; AHMO Price $15), and/or one TML Directory of City Officials (Regular Price $60; AHMO Price $30).

Membership

AHMO Membership consists of three categories: Elected, Appointed, and Associate.

Eligibility

Elected Official – Any Hispanic elected municipal official in Texas such as mayor, councilmember, alderperson, commissioner, and other municipal elected officials.

Appointed Official – Any Hispanic appointed municipal official in Texas such as city manager, city administrator, city attorney, city secretary, and other appointed officials.

Associate Membership – Individuals and organizations may be granted associate membership by the Executive Committee.
